Security

The Ymor Group finds it important to supply safe products and services. Despite all care and efforts, situations can arise in which there is (temporarily) a weak spot in our security: a vulnerability.

Found a security vulnerability? Report it to us!

Do you have indications that there is a vulnerability in the security of one of the systems of the Ymor Group? Then we would very much appreciate it if you would contact us. We shall be glad to work together with you in order to resolve the situation as quickly as possible.

To prevent misuse of the vulnerability, we ask you to observe the following when submitting a report:

- > Report security leaks (or the suspicion thereof) to the Ymor Security Officer via security@ymor.nl;
- > Encrypt your report with the aid of the PGP key;
- > Provide sufficient information (for example, a description including IP addresses, logs, how the vulnerability can be reproduced, screenshots, etc.), so we can deal with the report as efficiently and effectively as possible;
- > Do not share the knowledge about the vulnerability with others, until the leak has been repaired;
- > Do not misuse the security leak. If this does occur, it will lead to a report to the relevant authorities.

After a security leak has been reported, we shall contact you within 2 working days at most, in order to make agreements about a reasonable repair period and possible coordinated publication of the identified vulnerability.
